

To our customers

This is a request from central ministry and agency regarding measures against novel coronavirus infection.

In order to prevent the spread of infection, customers are requested to cooperate with telework and flexible-time work.

In addition, please cooperate with measures against infectious diseases such as washing hands, gargling, hand disinfection with alcohol, and obey the manners of coughing.